

RESIDENCY VERIFICATION GUIDELINES

Only residents of the District of Columbia are eligible to receive a free public education in the District. Consequently, all students enrolled at a public school or public charter school in the District are required to provide proof of their residency in the District or pay tuition. These guidelines are intended to provide school staff, parents, and others with clear directions for implementation of the residency verification rules.

Procedures for the Establishment of Residency

- Schools are required to maintain a completed DC Residency Verification Form for each student, which requires a school official to complete Part A and Part B (where student is enrolled by an “other primary caregiver”) and the person enrolling the student to complete Part C. In addition to the DC Residency Verification Form, schools must retain a clear copy of all supporting documentation used to fill out the Form, including residency verification documentation and “other primary caregiver” documentation when applicable. During the student enrollment audit, schools will be required to provide copies of these documents and Forms.¹
- The person enrolling a student must show original documents as proof of DC residency. The school official completing the DC Residency Verification Form must review the original documents to confirm authenticity, ensure that the name on the documents matches the name of the person who signs Part C of the Residency Verification Form, and ensure that the documents meet the requirements set out in the DC Residency Verification Form (such as issuance date and type of document).
- The residency status of each student initially enrolling in a District of Columbia Public School or public charter school shall be established by October 5 (or the next school day where October 5 falls on a Saturday or Sunday), or within ten (10) days of the time of initial enrollment, whichever occurs later within the school year for which the student is being enrolled. Residency status shall be re-established annually thereafter. The annual verification shall take place no sooner than April 1 of each year. Residency status shall be established through the use of satisfactory documentation as provided in requirement (1) or (2) below, or through the use of documentation that proves a student’s status as homeless.²

Documentation of Status as Other Primary Caregiver

An “other primary caregiver” is a person other than a parent or court-appointed custodian/ guardian who is the primary provider of care and support to a child who resides with him or her, and whose parent, custodian, or guardian is unable to supply such care and support. A parent or a court appointed custodian/guardian will be considered unable to provide care and support for the child if at least one of the reason(s) listed in the box below describes his/her circumstances:

- | | |
|---|--|
| <input type="checkbox"/> has abandoned the child | <input type="checkbox"/> is incarcerated |
| <input type="checkbox"/> does not live with the child due to neglect and/or abuse | <input type="checkbox"/> is deceased |
| <input type="checkbox"/> suffers from a serious illness | <input type="checkbox"/> has an active military assignment |

If none of the above descriptions apply, the “other primary caregiver” must provide another type of documentation that is listed under Part B of the DC Residency Verification Form.

² A school's McKinney-Vento homeless student liaison should insure that the appropriate form(s) is included in each homeless students' residency file.

An “other primary caregiver” must provide proof that he/she is the child’s primary caregiver by submitting one of the following items as part of the residency verification process:³

1. Records from the previous school year indicating that the child is in the care of the caregiver, including:
 - a. Downloads from the STAR database;
 - b. Signed report cards; or
 - c. Other school records.
2. Immunization or medical records indicating that the child is in the care of the caregiver.
3. Proof that the caregiver receives public or medical benefits on behalf of the child, with an issue date within 12 months immediately preceding consideration of residency, including:
 - a. Supplemental Security Income annual benefits notification; or
 - b. TANF verification of income notice or recertification approval letter.
4. A signed statement, sworn under penalty of perjury⁴, that he or she is the primary caregiver for the student. The standard form can be obtained from the local school.
 - a. If a DCPS or charter school official suspects that the statement is false, he or she should enroll the student but refer the case to OSSE for investigation.
5. A written attestation from a legal, medical or social service professional⁵ attesting to the caregiver’s status relevant to the minor child, with an issue date within the past 12 months.
